

Carocon Corporation Announces Key Personnel Changes

April 1, 2014

Sheila M. Neal has been promoted to Vice President of Administration at Carocon Corporation, a Regional Multifamily Construction Services firm. Mrs. Neal will supervise the Corporation's administrative functions for projects, vendor and subcontractor conformance, contract administration and reporting.

"Sheila has served Carocon faithfully throughout her career and it is gratifying to see her growth both professionally and personally" said Ambrose Dittloff, President of Carocon. "She has been with Carocon for 28 years, which is an exceptional tenure, and has contributed to over 50 projects while here". Mrs. Neal holds BA and MBA degrees from Gardner-Webb University.

Susan M. Williams has retired from Carocon Corporation after a 35 year career with the Company. She was most recently Vice President of Administration.

Having started her career in 1979, Susie assisted in Carocon's growth from a small local multifamily General Contractor to a recognized regional firm with nearly $100MM in revenues. "Susie has been an integral part of Carocon's development. In many ways she had become the standard bearer for Carocon reputation for integrity, professionalism and client service" said Mr. Dittloff.

A celebration of Susie's career was recently held and was largely attended by Clients, business partners and employees.

Carocon Corporation is a provider of construction services focused solely on wood-frame multifamily projects. Since its founding in 1972 the Company has built in excess of 22,000 dwelling units with over One Billion Dollars of revenue. In 2013 Carocon was named one of the Top 10 multifamily contractors in the United States.
